LOUISVILLE, Sept. 28.— New Albany, a town in Indiana of some 30,000 souls, just across the river from Louisville, furnished the inajor part of to-day's crowd at Lesgue Park. It is the home of Jouett Meekin, who is the most-taiked-of resident of New Albany and southern Indiana just at present. The friends of the New York pitcher occupied seats in the stands and rooted for him. They all wore a placard with the word "New York" printed conspicuously on it, and ed a ball game, ed a ball game, sterday the Louisvilles piled up a full sterday the Louisvilles, To-day they did dosen errors in seven innings. To-day they did not make quite so many, three less, but they were glaring and inexcusable. The game was not close. The New Yorks played a steady game both in the field and with the stick. There were no brilliant plays, except, perhaps, the work of "Shorty" Fuller, who was in his best form.

work of "Shorty" Fuller, who was in his best form.

Inks pitched a fairly good game. He could possibly have pitched far better, but he knew there was no use in exerting himself. German relieved Meekin in the fourth inning, and while his pitching was not quite up to the Hoosier boy's, it was sufficient to win with ease.

There was a lond yell when Doyle started the second inning with a single to centre, and Ward followed with another to the same place. Van Haltren continued the good work by smashing out a single to right, which scored Doyle and sent Ward to third. Fuller went out from Grim to first, but Ward scored. Wilson made accrach to third, the bail being too hot for Gilbert to handle. Van Haltren attempted to steal third and was retired. Meekin hit safely and then started for second. Wilson also went for home, but he was caught between the bases and run out.

It was in this inning, when Ward was at the bat, that Van Haitren walked to the plate with a handsome floral design about six feet in lengtht. Across the too were two bats crossed, and in the centre was "New Yorks." The design was presented by the New Albany friends of the Gotham players. The New Yorks assumed a good lead in their half of the fifth. With two men out, Tlernan was sent to his base on balls, and started for second, Davis scoring. Doyle then scored on Ward's single, but Ward was caught off first base.

The Kentuckians showed on the board for the first time in the sixth when three runs were scored. After Clark half gone out, Grim and Nicol made singles, and each got a base on Van Haltren's fumble. Gilbert sent a long fly to Burke, and Grim scored. Nicol got third on a wild pitch, and Lutenberg was hit and sent to first. Lake hit the ball down the third base line for a double, and Nicol and Lutenberg crossed the plate. Cote then sent Louisville to the field on a fly to Burke. The New Yorks went the Louisvilles one better in their half. Van Haltren hit to right, and after Fuller had gone out, Wilson singled. Inks and Lutenberg made errors and German got his base on balls. Burke reached first on Lutenberg's error, and Tiernan hit safely. Then followed three more errors by Clark, Nicol, and Gilbert which let wo more runs in. Davis went out to Lutenberg, and Doyle was thrown out at second, ending the inning.

PITTSBURGH, S; BROOKLYN, S.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 26.—For the third time in succession the local ball team defeated the Brooklyns this afternoon at Exposition Park. There were about 1,000 people present, and the weather was almost too cool to be comfortable. In the early stages of the game it was too one-sided to be interesting. The home players looked like easy winners, and spectators could not muster any enthusiasm, victory seemed so certain. But as the end of the contest approached, Colcolough, who was pitching for the home team, became an easy mark, and the Brooklyns changed the score from 7 to nothing against them in the fourth inning to 8 to 7 in their favor in the first half of the ninth. The visitors at the latter stage looked like winners, and the local fans started to kick because Colcolough had not been relieved when he became an easy victim. Certainly the victory was lucky at the finish, and it might have been made more certain by retiring Colcolough when he partially collapsed. Kennedy pitched again for the visitors, and after the fourth inning pitched very effectively until the ninth, when he was beaten. His support was bad, but still the home players had more earned runs than the visitors.

JOY IN THE TIGERS' CAMP. Holly Will Resume Tackling for Princeton

PRINCETON, Sept. 26,—The football practise to-day was characterized by a snap and vigor seldom seen on the field so carly in the season. Only two elevens lined up, the 'varsity and the scrub, but changes were made in the make-up so as to give all of the most promising candidates an opportunity of showing what was in them. Rosengarten at quarter back, McCormick and Vorhees at half back, Burt and Tyler at full back, and Armstrong and Cochran at end played a brilliant game. Hayward, a new man from Corpell, a brilliant game. Hayward, a new man from Cornell, put up an excellent game at end for the scruba. The following men were taken to the 'varsity training table this evening:

Crowdea, Riggs, and Rhodes, centres; Wheeler and Taylor, guards; Lea, Church, and Tyler, tackles; Brown, Trenchard, Armstrong, Smith, and Cochrane, ends; Rosengarten and Foe, quarter backs; Vorhees, Ward. Morse, and Barnett, half backs; McCormick and Hurt, full backs.

There is joy in the Tigers' camp to-night. Holly, who played tackle in last year's team, but who has been kept from playing this year by the objections of his parents, will return to college and play on the team. The supplications and entreaties of Capt. Trenchard and his men were too much for parental objections, and Holly is expected to return at any moment. This will allow Tyler, who is a very promising football man for full back or tackle, to devote his entre at an entreating for full back, and will leave had year's rush line, with the exception of centre, intact.

SMALL FIELDS AT JEROME.

JEROME PARK'S PROGRAMME NOT SATISFACTORY TO HORSEMEN.

Marry Read Made a Show of His Field to the Fordham Stakes-The Mir Watter Rece a Poor Apology for Sport-Wernberg Outgames Halton-Thousands Lost When Interocean Bled at the None Redakin Befents Victorious, and Leonawell Too Much for St. Michael Bookmaker Jones Couldn't Get a Stand Yesterday.

Unless some radical change is made in the programme of the American Jockey Club the neeting now under way at Jeroma Park is going to be a failure, both from a racing and a financial standpoint. The fields yesterday were small, and the race between Sir Walter, Walter winning by fifty yards, while Prince George, a colt of high class when he is right, was so manifestly unfit that he was beaten for second money. Harry Reed showed how great is his flight of speed by simply spread-ragling his field in the Fordham Stakes at half a mile, winning the race was the performance of the 100 to 1 shot, the Spendthrift-Kalula colt, owned by the Milibrook stable, this handsome youngster running into second place.

The weather was cold, and the attendance the lightest of the meeting.

Bookmaker O. A. Jones was not permitted to draw for a stand in the betting ring yesterday During the midsummer meeting of the American Jockey Club the gelding Glenmoyne was disqualified for being short of weight, and the race given to Stonenell. All bets, of course, followed the decision, but Jones had an argument with the owner of a ticket, and, it is said, refused to pay the money. The holder of the ticket awore lustily at the bookmaker, and when the stewards of the American Jockey Club ordered him to pay the bet the bookmaker refused to do so until he was tendered an apology for the insult he had suffered. The stewards claimed to have no further jurisdiction in the matter, and, as the ticket was still unpaid yesterday, they declined to give Jones the usual privileges of the betting ring. Bookmaker Jones is well known as both a horseowner and a layer of odds. He owned at one time that good performer Leonawell.

Harry Reed was a tep-heavy favorite for the fordham Stakes at half a mile, and went to the post at 4 to 1 on. Annisette and Counter Tenor were well supported for second place, but the Kalula colt and Punch were regarded with disdain by the knowing division, who expected Harry Reed to win hands down, with Annisette and Counter Tenor fighting for second money. and Counter Tenor fighting for second money.

Doggett rode Harry Reed, and the little gelding smothered his field in the first quarter, setting such a pace up the hill that none but the Kalula colt could keep near him. The big cutsider staggered at the end of three furiongs, and Harry Reed won under a double pull. The Kalula colt beat Annisette two lengths for second money. Counter Tenor swerved in and out from the start, and showed how utterly unreliable he is by finishing a very poor fourth. Some persons got as much as20 to 1 against the Kalula colt for second place.

There were but four starters for the opening dash at six furlongs, with the bulk of the money on Wernberg, although the play was so strong on Black Hawk at the close that there wasn't much to choose between the pair at post time. Restraint, running for the first time in the colors of his new owner, was extensively touted and carried some money for the place. Halton chased Wernberg to the stretch and brought the favorite to a drive three-sixteenths of a mile from home. When the Himyar gelding seemed to have Wernberg beaten he gave it up, and Taral, by hard riding, pulled the race out of the fire with the favorite. Wernberg beating Halton haif a length. Black Hawk, none too long on courage himself, was at Halton's saddlegirths at the wire. From a stout, game colt last year and early this season, Halton has become an utter counterfeit. Victorious and Redskin were the only starters Doggett rode Harry Reed, and the little gelding Time, 1:06. Warpaint and Adjust also ran.

at the wire. From a stout, game colt last year and early this season, Halton has become an utter counterfeit.

Victorious and Redakin were the only starters in the second race, Sir Walter being reserved for the fourth. Victorious was the favorite at 2 to 1 on, but Girffin pressed Redakin along, and, by dint of much cajolery, got him to try hard in the homestretch. Victorious does not like to make the running, and, after a brief struggle, he gave it up. Redakin won by a length.

Sir Walter was practically barred in the betting in the fourth race, and, after a visit to the paddock to see Prince George. Diabolus was preferred to the Manhattan Stable's representative, who was making his first appearance of the year and was high in flesh. Then, too, he was to be ridden by Shaw, and the talent preferred Diabolus, with Lamly in the saddle. Doggett let Sir Walter rate along from the start, and the interest was centred in the contest for second place. Shaw made a very bad turn at the club house, but when they reappeared he was a length or so before Diabolus. In the homestretch Diabolus moved up, and heading Prince George could make it interesting for most three-year-olds not in the topmost class, but he has a ringbone, and started yesterday for the first time this season.

The money was on Inter Ocean in the scramble for maiden three-year-olds at five furlongs. The big gelding was in the lead and running easily, when he ruptured a blood vessel in his head, and for maiden three-year-olds at his furtions. The big gelding was in the lead and running easily, when he ruptured a blood vessel in his head, and Reiff pulled him up quickly, leaving Saginaw, Lou Foster, and Warlike to fight it out. Lamly rode a good race on Lou Foster and landed the 17-hand bay colt winner by a length or so. Saginaw in a drive took second money from Warlike.

Warlike. Leonawell, at odds on, indulged St. Michael with the lead to the homestretch in the last race at one mile, but as soon as Simms called upon him the natty little five-year-old went on about his business and won by almost a length. Roller, the only other starter, ridden by Shaw, was never in the hunt. Summaries follow: PIRST BACK.

Bosron, Sept. 20.—The big stallion race for which the New England Trotting Horse Breeders' Association offered a purse of $15,000, and which brought together Directum, Aricn, and Nelson, was trotted this afternoon at Mystic Park in the presence of fully 20,300 persons and Directum wor, in three straight heats, Orrin Hickok sat behind Directum, while "Hod Nelson, as usual, piloted his own horse. Arion who was looked after by Budd Doble, did not show himself until within a few minutes of the tarting time. There were but few in the crowd who knew that the horse was suffering from congestion of the lungs, and that Commodore Forbes, his owner, had been warned by his veterinary surgeon that the horse was liable to drop dead if he started in the race. The track was not at its best, being a triffe heavy, white a good stiff northeast wind met the trotters as they came down the stretch and around the quarter. A track prophet predicted that, should the wind continue, it would be Directum's race, and so it proved. The Western trotter was only headed once, and that in the second heat, when, for nearly a quarter of a mile Nelson led him by a neck. The first money was $9,000, second money $4,500, and third money $1,500.

Sept. 26.—An overcast sky and a cold biting wind had a depressing effect on the attention at the second day's meeting of the Queens County Λ_Q ricultural Society held on the fair grounds at this place. There were about 8,000 persons on the ground and many left before the day was over. During in and many left before the day was over. Furing the afternoon there was an exciling runaway. A tenn of young horses belonging to Alfred Hawkins of Westbury ran away inside the paddock and collided with a carriage occupied by Vaientine Willis of East Williston and his brother. Both men were thrown out. St. Willis is well advanced in years, but has attended every meeting of the fair since the organization of the society over fifty years ago. He was badly shakes the society over fifty years ago. He was badly abases up by the collision, but recovered sufficiently to be taken to his home. The runsway team were caught after demolishing the carriage.

Two accidents that occurred in the 9:55 trot yesterday, owing to the fact that fifteen horses started, had the effect of bringing out a protest from the drivers asking that not more than ten horses should be allowed in any race. The protest was sent to the judges, and had the effect of dividing the next big race into two sections. Summaries:

Stout Trotting at Baltimore. HALTIMORE, Sept. 26.—The favorites had a hard time to-day at the Gentlemen's Driving Park. The track was fast but the weather was cold. There was a col-

and Minnie O. The driver of the latter, Ott, was thrown against the fence, but was not seriously in-jured. Little Leo was a warm favorite for the first race, and his backers bet the ring to a standatill before and after the first heat. The Terre Haute stalling Gregorian was a favorite over the field for the 2:3'
